

L. Chief Announces Front Campaign Against Law

L Chief Announces Three-Front Campaign Against Law

We are going to fight—fight with weapon at our command—in an drive that will never relax victory is won.

We intend to fight to protect the s of our members by negotiating contracts with employers which shield labor from at least some se disastrous effects of the new The new contract negotiated by United Mine Workers Union just only is an outstanding example secondly, we are going to fight in courts to have this law held unconstitutional. We have been advised by legal counsel that many sec-of the law are direct invasions of the constitutional rights of the organized workers of the nation. We take up that challenge and we carry it all the way to the high-courts of the land.

inally, we are going to unite our ined strength and resources in greatest political battle ever ed by organized labor in America battle that will be fought relentuntil every member of Con-

Green denounced the legislative act of the 80th Congress to date as one which "discloses how boldly and how ruthlessly our so-called con-the interests of the great many of the American people for the benefit of the wealthy and the monopolistic few."

ure, the reactionary forces in Congress passed a tax reduction bill heavily weighted in favor of those in the high income brackets" and when he tried to override the President's veto, "he allowed the same bill to pass."

A third anti-social measure of present Congress was the rent act permitting landlords to rents is percent on a "voluntary basis, which, Mr. Green said, was "the crying need of the American people for more housing at moderate cost."

President said:
America going to stand for a policy and program which res human rights and human 17 re the American people, and ...the American people going to sit tamely while the social justice nation for which they gave their life is torn down and destroyed? Are the workers of our country to let themselves be pushed to even squalid conditions?

know your answer. I know the answer of the 7,500,000 members of this organization, united today as they were before. And I know what the answer of the American people is.

... will be once their eyes are
... and once they realize the emp-
... and the bitterness of the false ... aganda which the reactionary
...icians have used to delude them.
... There is only one effective way to that treacherous politicians who put the people they were elected to represent—and that is to defeat them—at the polls. A great opportunity presents itself in the national elections next year. The 1948 elec-may seem a long way off, but in political sense the campaign is already under way. If we want the forces of justice and decency to win, we must enter campaign right now. We must working without delay to elect national administration which will responsive to the peoples' needs a Congress which will place hurights above property rights.

With your help and with the help of one of the 7,500,000 men and ... who make up the American ration of Labor and all their lies and friends, we propose to ist that."

Washington, D. C.—Marriner S. E. Federal Reserve system chief, urged the Senate Banking Com-not to remove existing responsibilities on installment buying which are a one-third down payment the balance to be liquidated within months.

the House Banking Committee has introduced a bill which discards

...advice and takes controls off immediately on passage by Congress.

10

